KILLED BY A THUG

LONE THIEF OPERATES IN WEST END

Reward Is Offered for Capture of Highwaymen.

THE MURDERER OF MOTORMAN J. M. TENNEY AND WILLIAM P. TRUBODY, WATCHMAN FOR HOLBROOK, MERRILL & STETSON, WHO WERE SHOT TO DEATH BY A BOLD HOLD-UP MAN EARLY YESTERDAY MORNING AT SIXTEENTH STREET STATION, HAS NOT BEEN APPREHENDED AS YET AND THE POLICE ARE AT A LOSS TO FIND A CLUE TO HIS IDENTITY.

ALL DAY YESTERDAY SUSPECTS WERE BROUGHT TO THE POLICE STATION AND EXAMINED, BUT ALL PROVED AN ALIBI AND WERE RELEASED.

THE DETECTIVES ARE RUNNING DOWN EVERY TRAIL IN AN EFFORT TO ARREST THE FUGITIVE, BUT EACH AVENUE SEEMS TO BE A FALSE ONE. HOLBROOK, MERRILL & STETSON, TRUBODY'S EMPLOYERS, AND THE OAKLAND TRACTION CONSOLIDATED, HAVE OFFERED REWARDS FOR THE CAPTURE OF THE DARING MURDERER.

THE FORMER FIRM HAS GUARANTEED FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS TO THE PERSON WHO APPREHENDS THE BAD MAN.

Yesterday morning shortly after 1 o'clock two men were murdered by an unknown desperado in this city.

One of the unfortunates was J. M. Tenney, a motorman of the Oakland Traction Consolidated, operating a car on the Sixteenth street line, the western terminus of which is the Sixteenth street depot of the Southern Pacific Railway Company.

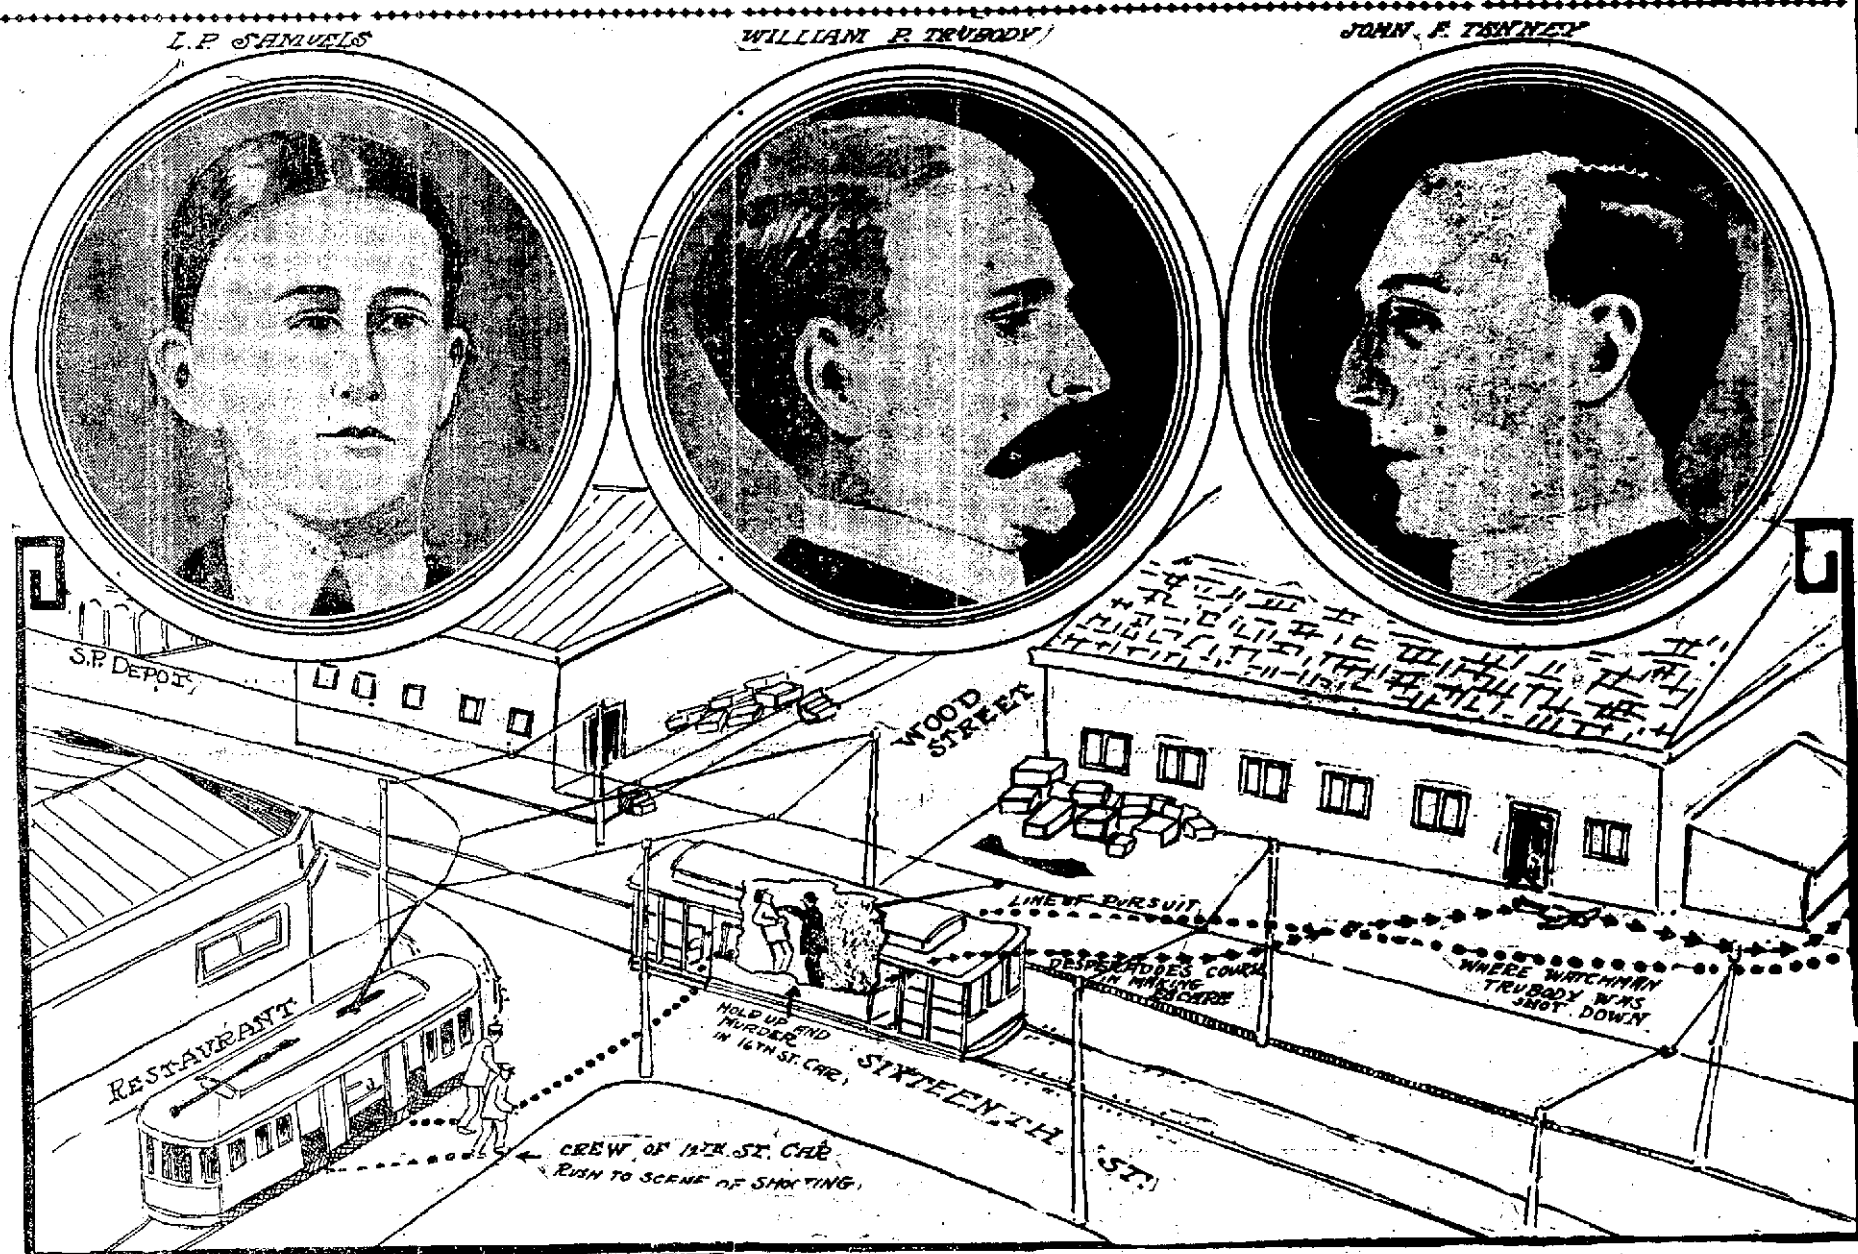

The other was William P. Trubody, outside night watchman at the warehouse of Holbrook, Merrill & Stetson at the corner of Seventeenth and Wood streets, West Oakland.

Tenney was shot in his car at the depot terminus, the bullet entering the throat. He died two hours later at the Oakland Central Hospital at the northwest corner of Jefferson and Twelfth streets.

Trubody was shot and, it is believed, died instantly at the corner of Wood and Seventeenth streets, the deadly bullet lodging in his heart.

The murderer is unknown.

MURDERS BOTH MEN.
There is no doubt, however, that he is desperate because his purpose in the first instance was the robbery of Conductor L. E. Samuel of the car of

MAYOR MOTT SAYS POLICE FORCE IS ABLE TO COPE WITH SITUATION

Mayor Mott had the following to say this morning when asked whether he thought it advisable to call out a citizens' vigilance committee, owing to the excessive number of crimes that have taken place in this city within the past forty-eight hours:

By MAYOR FRANK K. MOTT

"If the city administration was corrupt and incompetent, and the police authorities were lax and not endeavoring to their utmost to apprehend criminals and thugs, it would be time to talk about forming citizens' committees. The present situation, however, in my judgment, does not call for any such action. It does not appear to me as wise to have men unused to police duty patrolling the streets, and probably jeopardizing their own lives and those of others. It is likely that we need more policemen, and the public may be assured that the police force will be increased, if necessary, to a thousand men. The police department is being conducted very efficiently at the present time with the force that it has under its command, and I firmly believe that they are able to cope with the situation.

"Present conditions are no worse than have obtained many times in the past, and were it not for the conditions in San Francisco due to the disaster, of course, our people would have no occasion to feel alarmed. When one stops to think that these depredations are likely being committed by the same man, we will soon have him jailed. The tragedy of Saturday night occurred in a portion of the city bordering on a large marshy tract, which offered a good avenue of escape for the murderer. Nothing, however, will be left undone to apprehend and capture this red-handed villain, and precautions will be taken that he gets his just deserts."

THUGS BEAT WOMAN BRUTAL ASSAULT IS MADE AT PIEDMONT

Two desperadoes set upon Mrs. H. trees. Mrs. Murro was walking along the street unescorted when two men stepped out of the shadows and accosted her.

"Give us your money!" was the command of one of the two footpads, but Mrs. Murro refused to comply with the request and started to proceed forward on her way.

The thugs then set upon her and for a time the brave woman beat them off. She finally succumbed to the very dark at night, being shaded by her and fell to the ground unconscious. After robbing the prostrate woman, the footpads made their escape in the darkness.

Mrs. Murro was found by passers-by, who took her to her home.

The bold hold-up and assault was reported to the local police by P. A. Dinmore of the Realty Syndicate, which is a regular system of patrol around and through Blair Park.

It is believed that Mrs. Murro will recover from her awful experience.

BEAUTIFUL ACTRESS HAS LOST REASON

Lying on a rude cot in the insane ward of the Receiving Hospital, staring into vacancy, is Miss Irene M. Zipey, a beautiful actress with the donough, of 94 Prospect Place, Brooklyn, New York, who was taken into custody at 4 o'clock this morning by the police, who believed she was demented.

From papers and a diary found in her possession she arrived in this city yesterday and hired a room at 673 Tenth street, after a tour extending from St. Paul, Minn., through the Northwest to Spokane and thence to Oakland. According to her itinerary, she was due in Los Angeles on the 24 of this month.

Since her arrival at the hospital she has refused to speak to the physicians or visitors and remains a mystery. Every effort has been made to get the beautiful girl to talk but she has evinced no sign of a knowledge of what her questioners are asking. A remarkable thing about her comeliness is her hair, which is steel gray, either premature or the result of a great sorrow or fright. All that she has been known to say is a statement to the officer that picked her up. Then she pleaded with him, saying: "Please let me go home."

Her diary shows that she anticipated an accident or death, as it contains a request to notify Mrs. D. F. Mangor of the same address, Brooklyn, in case anything happens to her.

IS HIT WITH AN AX Awful Crime in San Francisco.

Alleged Robber Pursued and Caught.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—

Shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon a man entered the establishment of Nicholas Koehn, a business man at 3066 Twenty-sixth street, and while his attention was for a moment distracted, struck him over the head with an axe, inflicting injuries that may prove fatal.

The crime was discovered almost immediately and a large crowd joined in the pursuit of George Multravers, who is said to have committed the crime.

Multravers was caught and is now undergoing an examination by the police.

BATTLE FOR MILLIONS IS BEGUN BY DAUGHTER

Sensations Spring in Suit to Break Will Disposing of Sixty Million Dollars.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—The great contest inaugurated to have declared invalid the will of William Weightman, the millionaire chemist, who died leaving an estate valued at about $60,000,000, was called for a hearing today before Judge Ashman, in the Orphans' Court.

William Weightman was the founder of the Powers & Weightman firm of chemists, which since his death has become the Powers-Weightman-Dose-garten company. He was known to have acquired a vast fortune and this, under the terms of the will was nearly all bequeathed to Mr. Weightman's daughter, Mrs. Anne Weightman-Walker. The suit to set aside the will was instituted by Mrs. Jones-Walker, who was a daughter-in-law of Mr. Weightman, but who re-married at the death of her husband, John Weightman, but Mrs. Walker, on behalf of her minor daughter, Martha Weightman, seeks to prove that the will is a fraud and that the property should be divided among her granddaughters and a grandson of Mr. Weightman.

SENSATION IS CREATED.
A sensation was created by Mrs. Walker's declaration that Mr. Weightman, who was past 80 years of age when he died, made a proposal of marriage to her after the death of her husband, but that she rejected him and married Mr. Walker. The contest has caused the family to split into factions, one of Mrs. Walker's daughters, Mrs. Richard Walsh Meiers, formerly Miss Anne W. Weightman, openly siding with her aunt. She will probably be a witness in Mrs. Walker's behalf.

A formidable array of counsel has been retained by both sides. Hampton L. Carson, attorney-general of Pennsylvania, and John G. Johnson are at the head of Mrs. Walker's group of lawyers, and Alexander Simpson, Jr., heads the attorneys for Mrs. Walker. The principals in the case, Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Wister, arrived in the courtroom only this afternoon and took seats among the crowd. Each was quietly dressed and Mrs. Walker's appearance gave but slight indication that she was possessed of $60,000,000.

The first witness called by the contestant was W. A. Cooper, 76 years of age, who was manager of accounts and credits for Powers & Weightman, of which concern Mr. Weightman was also a member. At first he was an unwilling witness and was threatened with contempt of court for refusing to answer certain questions. He had been a witness to the will and Mr. Simpson asked him what money he had received from Mrs. Walker after the death of her father.

His first answer was that he received his salary up to the time the firm was taken over by another company. Then he admitted receiving $25 for each year he was with the firm, a total of $100. Other employees' gifts were at the same rate.

PRESENT OF $5000.
Following this after much coaxing by attorneys, he admitted giving a present of $5000 from Mrs. Walker. "What else did you get?" asked Mr. Simpson.

"It is a private matter," he replied. At this juncture the witness was threatened with contempt of court for refusing to answer. Finally the judge informed him that he was in the hands of the court and he was instructed to answer.

Mr. Cooper, thereupon said: "Well, if I am compelled to answer, I received from Mrs. Walker $100,000."

This answer caused a sensation and much loud conversation ensued. After much had been restored the witness said he received the $100,000 about December 27, 1901.

Having established the fact that he had received gifts from Mrs. Walker, the witness was asked to state the circumstances of the signing of the will of Mr. Weightman, on August 1, 1903. He had witnessed the signing of two other papers, one in the hands of the last will. These, he believed, were a will and codicil, but he was not sure.

PREACHERS TALK ON BIG BASEBALL SERIES

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Two pastors used the championship baseball series for a topic for pulpit discourses last night. Both agreed that the game is the clearest of all sports, but they deplored the fact that gambling was permitted on the grounds and that one of the contestants was played on Sunday. They appealed to the managers to take a stand against these evils in the future.

Rev. Johnston Myers preached on "A Home Run," at Emmanuel Baptist church, and declared, among other things, that "if the same spirit which sets men wild at such baseball games as have been witnessed last week in Chicago, were manifested in the church, there would not be a skeptic left in Chicago."

Subject chosen by the Rev. Ralph Stuart, pastor of the Second Baptist church, "Baseball is the greatest, grandest and noblest of all sports," he said. "It is clean, manly and safe. There are but two criticisms that the best element of the community can make of the game. First, the amount of gambling attendant on the big league game. The second criticism is the almost universal custom of playing the game on the Sabbath."

BALL PIERCES OFFICER'S JAW

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—Corporal Layne of the police department was shot in the right jaw by Herman Goltsch, a saloonkeeper, at about 1:30 o'clock this morning.

Goltsch was said to be selling liquor to several women in his saloon after closing hours, when Layne and Lieutenant A. D. Tobin approached and demanded admittance. This was refused, and the refusal followed by a shot from Goltsch, as reported.

Layne was removed to the City and County hospital and Goltsch was arrested and charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

BERTHA KRUPP IS MARRIED

ESSEN, Oct. 15.—In the presence of Emperor William and 140 guests, Franz Bertha Krupp and Lieutenant Gustav von Bohlen and Halbach were married today in a little improvised chapel, adjoining the bride's birthplace, the Villa Hugel-Hugel. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the neighboring village of Krupp, where the bride has long worshipped.

Bertha Krupp and Lieutenant von Bohlen, before the wedding, announced their joint gift of $250,000 to the workmen's invalid fund, and Mrs. Krupp gave notice that she had donated another $250,000 to the same fund and 125 acres of land on which to build economical model dwellings for the workmen. The bridegroom accompanied his portion of the gift by the assurance that he would perpetuate the present relations with the working people maintained by Alfred B. and Friedrich Krupp.

ASLEEP ON TRACK; KILLED
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—F. Patrick, a tinsmith of 127 Bryant street, went to sleep on the track of the Market street trolley line, and was killed by a passing car. The motorist of the car was 23 years old.

Willie as a 2nd Christopher Columbus
Well, when I was a year younger than I am now, if anybody had told me that on October 14 I would be a discoverer I would not agree with them, but I am. Ever since I have been in Oakland, now nearly 10 months, I have kept my eye on the City Hall, at the head of this street. There was something about that building that looked like something I had seen before, so yesterday being Sunday I went up there and took a good long look at it, and the longer I looked, the more I knew I was right. I had a big picture, and my Sunday school paper in my pocket. Gee, I jumped up and down and I guess people thought I was crazy, but what did I care, I had found the original Noah's Ark, and I couldn't suppress my joy. What will people say, now that they know that the office boy at Heeseeman's has found the boat that was supposed to be on Mt. Ararat. Oh, I guess, Chris and I haven't it—another thing I have discovered, and that is this. This store is the place where most every man and boy head for when they want to buy clothing. The stock is absolutely right, and the prices are right, and the treatment is right. Take Saturday's coming as an illustration. Crowds come and going up and tomorrow you will see crowds going to the City Hall and looking at the ark. For proof that this is the ark, see WILLIE SKRUGGS at

YOUNG MISSIONARIES OF STATE GATHER FOR WEEK'S DISCUSSION OF THEIR WORK

MISS ELVINA HOWE, Member of Registration Committee. WILLIAM SHAW of Boston, Treasurer United Society of Christian Endeavor.

Stirring Music and Forceful Addresses at Opening Sessions of Interdenominational Conference in Presbyterian Church This Morning.

The Young People's International Missionary conference opened this morning at 9 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church with a good attendance of delegates, and all through the morning they continued to arrive from near-by cities, and in the afternoon from different places. There were a few present at the opening from outside places who arrived Saturday.

The reception committee, under the direction of Chairman F. C. Gale, met the delegates at the trains and escorted them to the convention church, where they were registered by the registration committee, of which Dr. J. Emmet Clark is chairman. A. E. Caldwell, chairman of the entertainment committee, assigned the delegates to places of entertainment, and those applying before October 9 were supplied with free entertainment in the homes of Oakland church members.

The convention program opened with Rev. H. J. Vossberg presiding. Dr. Clark has the direction of the music of the conference, which is to be quite a feature. The chorus is trained to sing the great hymns of the church, which are the most inspiring songs for gatherings such as these. The first hymn of the conference is "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." There will be a large chorus at the evening sessions.

Every session of the conference opens with an exposition. The opening scripture of the conference, read and commented upon by Rev. Miles B. Fisher, Rev. Hiram Van Kirk spoke of the promise made to Abraham by God, that his son Isaac should be the father of the church. Dr. W. H. Rine followed with an address showing Isaiah's Vision of Christ's kingdom. These addresses were to bring forcibly before the convention the thought of the universal acceptance of Christ and His reign over all the earth. Then Dr. Bator presented the words of Jesus, showing that the teachings of Christ are the marching orders of the church for the carrying of the Gospel to every creature.

that story of the New England farmer who went to Boston for the first time and who, before retiring, asked the hotel clerk about the hours for meals.
"Breakfast from 6 to 11; lunch from 11 to 3; dinner from 3 to 8," was the reply. "Well," said the farmer, "I'm a stranger. What time do I get to see the town?" This fable well defines the average man's idea of a square meal—something that must begin at 6, and end at 8, and that must be eaten by 11. I prefer a "short refectory" to the conventional meal—especially in the heat of the day. Pretty warm, again, isn't it?

HALLOWEEN IS NOT FAR OFF—LOOK OUT FOR OUR SOUVENIRS.
Lehnhardt's
1159 BROADWAY.

Rev. Pohn Thompson then told of the great work done by the American Bible Association, of which he is secretary, in the furnishing of the foreign nations the Bible in their own language. The conference at 11:30 then broke up into groups for half hour prayer. The following five persons presided over the group meetings: Frank Hultinger, Dr. J. Emmet Clark, A. E. Caldwell, Miss Mary Bentley and Percy Bliss.

The afternoon session was opened with an enthusiastic song service, and an exposition of scriptures which is one of the features of this conference, was given by Professor Levi Gregory of the Friends' church, Berkeley. His appeal for "Christian unity" was followed by a reading on the subject "Found Wanting," by Miss Sarah M. White. This was an earnest and moving appeal for all Christians to be "One in Christ," and work harmoniously and loyally together with Him as their great leader. Rev. H. W. Gilchrist of San Jose, secretary of the Mt. Hermon association, brought a vigorous and stirring message on "Christian Indifference," which he said is the great obstacle to the spread of the kingdom at home and abroad.

Popular Profrudges Against Missionary Enterprise was the subject for the twenty-minute symposium, in which a number of speakers told of objections which they had heard to missionary work, and gave what they considered satisfactory answers to the objections. After an address on "The Exclusion of Orientals" by Rev. H. H. Johnson, who spoke of this subject before the Labor Federation of New York city, and a spicy discussion of "The Attitude of the Press Toward the Missionaries" by Stuart W. Bond, the well-known newspaper man, the afternoon session closed with an address on "The Liquor Traffic in Its Relation to Missions," by A. W. Tenger, secretary of the Anti-Saloon League.

The session this evening will begin at 7:30 by a praise service led by a large chorus. Rev. J. C. Bolster will read the eleventh chapter of Hebrews, and give an exposition of the same, following which Rev. Lapsley A. McAfee, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Berkeley, will give an address outlining the work that may be accomplished through the work of this conference. Dr. Charles R. Brown, pastor of the First Congregational Church, Oakland, will give his address "The Haystack Centennial Celebration."

The sessions of the Conference will begin again Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, and continue with only interruptions for lunch and dinner all day, and Wednesday and Thursday also. It is anticipated that the three thousand delegates expected will be registered before the close of the Conference.

The badge of the Conference is white with the outline of a cross printed in black and the words, "Go ye in my name." The mottoes of the conference, these being the sayings of missionary heroes. The mottoes are as follows:

Let us advance upon our knees. Pray without ceasing.—Neesima. The present is bright as the promises of God.—Judson. He shall have dominion from sea to sea.

That land is henceforth my country, which most needs the gospel.—Zinzendorf. Go ye in all the world. Prayer and pains thro' faith in Jesus Christ will do anything.—Elliot. Nothing shall be impossible unto you.

He that is wise winneth souls. A man is good for nothing but to be used up.—Mitchell. The good shepherd giveth his life. Facts are the fingers of God.—A. T. Pierson. Lord what wilt thou have me to do? If I had a thousand lives to live, Africa should have them all.—Makinzie. Here am I—send me. No man careth for my soul. To give without prayer is impotent. To pray without giving is impudent. Faith without works is dead.

HE WILL HAVE CLEAN STREETS

Residents Across Bay Wrathful at Duffey for Ordering Rubbish Thrown in Yards.

"CHECKERS" S GREAT SUCCESS
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—The task of thoroughly cleaning the streets and sidewalks of the city was commenced today under the direction of the Board of Public Works. Five hundred men were placed at work clearing debris on Market street near the ferry.

President Duffey of the Board of Public Works announced, when he succeeded Frank Maestretti as the head of the board, that it would be his policy to clear the streets of rubbish as rapidly as possible.

Rubbish was thrown from the streets onto vacant private property, and the result was strenuous protests from numerous owners. Many building sites had been entirely freed of debris and property holders particularly objected to having basements that had been cleaned, filled with bricks and iron again.

Property owners had been notified to clear the sidewalks and streets in front of their premises, and those who had not done so were compelled to stand by and watch the workmen carry out their orders. In some places the laborers worked under police guard.

10 YEAR OLD BOY REPORTED MISSING
The ten-year-old son of Mrs. Murphy of 1053 Seventh street has been reported as a runaway. The boy has been missing from home since yesterday afternoon at four o'clock. He wore a pair of corodur trousers, a gray cap and a blue skirt. The police have been asked to find the lad.

POLICE ARREST AND RELEASE SUSPECTS

CONDUCTOR TELLS STORY OF HOLD-UP FOR "THE TRIBUNE"

This is the exclusive statement given by Conductor L. B. Samuels to a TRIBUNE representative at the Central Hospital Sunday morning while his partner, Tenny, lay dying.

By L. B. SAMUELS.

The hold-up occurred at 12:54 a. m. Ours was a Sixteenth street car, No. 157. When we reached Sixteenth and Wood streets Tenny brought the car to a halt to wait for the car that was at the depot to pull out and allow us to come in.

Having pulled up to the switch I went inside at once and sat down facing the front of the car. I was about to begin counting my money, with my back to the rear door. Tenny came in and sat opposite to me. He was talking to me as I pulled the money from my pocket. It happened so quickly I can hardly tell you what took place.

Tenny suddenly jumped to his feet as if to hit some one. He had his controller in his hand. As he started to deliver the blow a shot rang out and Tenny dropped back on the seat blood gushing from his hand and breast.

SMOKE HIDES THING

I turned quickly and looked but could not see the highwayman on account of the smoke from the revolver.

WRONG TILT OF COLLAR BAR TO SWELL HOTELS

You may not know it, but the collar bar is the most important part of the collar. It is the part that holds the collar in place and keeps it from falling off. If the collar bar is not properly tilted, the collar will not stay on and the hotel will be swelled.

The collar bar is a small piece of metal that is attached to the collar. It is usually made of brass or steel. The collar bar is tilted at an angle so that it will hold the collar in place. If the collar bar is not tilted properly, the collar will not stay on and the hotel will be swelled.

It is important to have the collar bar tilted correctly. If it is not, the collar will not stay on and the hotel will be swelled. This is a common problem in hotels and it is important to have it fixed.

When I could not see who shot Tenny I grabbed the motorman to prevent him from falling from the seat and shouted for help.

When assistance came we carried him to a Twelfth street car and took him to the hospital.

DYING STATEMENT MADE TO A "TRIBUNE" REPORTER BY MOTORMAN J. N. TENNY

Lying on a little cot in the emergency ward of the Central hospital, Tenny, the motorman, made the following statement to a TRIBUNE man, twenty minutes before he died: "I came inside the car and sat down opposite Samuel as I was tired and anxious to get home. We were talking together when I chanced to look up and saw a man, wearing a blue handkerchief with white polka dots covering all of his face except the eyes, enter the rear door. As the man came in he presented a gun at me and I, realizing that he was a hold-up man, jumped to my feet and brought down the controller on his head with all the force I could, at the same time exclaiming: 'You — — —' Even as the handle struck him the shot was fired. That is all that I can say. I could not give a better description on account of the excitement under which I was laboring and the rapidity with which the thing happened."

FIVE HOLD-UPS ONE NIGHT'S RECORD OF CRIME IN CITY AND ITS SUBURBS

Five hold ups in various parts of the city were reported to the police this morning and descriptions of the hold-up men given. Chief Wilson states that he needs more policemen in order to cope with the situation. In one of the hold-ups took place on the out-of-the-way parts of the city. During all these hold-ups last night but very little booty was secured by the robbers.

Frank Rebell of 5138 Shattuck avenue was held up last night at Fifty-second street and Shattuck avenue by a robber who flourished a pistol in his face with the order to hold up his hands. Rebell did as he was told and the foot pad went through his pockets but secured nothing. Rebell is an Idaho Park employee.

Ernest Heintz of 1327 Fifth avenue East Oakland was held up at Twenty-third street and Tenth avenue by a masked foot pad, who secured nothing. M. P. Cleary a salesman, living in the Harvard House, claims that he was robbed in his own room by two men, shortly before 12 o'clock last night. Cleary claims that the two men followed him from Seventh and Franklin streets, and when he was about to go in his room at 423 San Pablo avenue he was struck down and robbed of $5.

VIGILANCE FORCE TO CHECK CRIME IN SAN FRANCISCO DENIED BY PARDEE

SALT LAKE, Utah, Oct. 15.—The stories sent broadcast over the country, while having some truth in them, are magnified. San Francisco has no vigilance committee. Owing to crimes being committed there with startling regularity unusual police regulations must be enforced. Some talk was started about organizing a vigilance committee but the committee ended in talk.

This statement was made last night by Governor George C. Pardee, of California, who is on his way to Denver to attend the American mining congress, of which he is president.

"San Francisco is the greatest city in the West," he added. "At present it is a Mecca for crooks and thugs. With every one loaded down with guns and knives, this element can work with less trouble than in a well-organized and whole city. The crooks are under control, however, and every step is being made to rid San Francisco of the fiends which now infest it."

SHERIFF BARNET DECLARES HOLDUPS ARE NOT ALL REAL

Says That Out of Six Robberies Only One of Them Was Bona Fide.

Sheriff Frank Barnett gave out an interview to the press this morning regarding the recent hold-ups in the Fruitvale district in which he expressed the opinion that only one of the six alleged robberies was bona fide. He also gave out a communication received from the citizens of Upper Fruitvale asking that one hundred of their number be sworn in as deputy sheriffs. The interview is as follows:

"Of the last six hold-ups that were reported in the Fruitvale district there was only one of which there was proof positive of the commission of a crime. The people of course have just cause for alarm and we give these matters our immediate attention but very often the office is handicapped because very often the hold-ups are not reported to the office until several hours after they are committed and sometimes we know nothing of them until we see them in the newspapers the next day. The night that Mrs. Atchison was held up, the night of the 11th there were three other hold-ups reported and after investigation it was shown that the case of Mrs. Atchison was really the only one."

"In this office during the month of September there was more civil work transacted than there was during the whole of the last year of Sheriff Rogers' term. I ought to have five more men in the office. There is only

GOURAUDS ARE TO SEPARATE

Daughter of Amy Crocker
Lives Apart From Her Husband.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Although no legal proceedings have been begun, it is an open secret among their friends that a separation has taken place between Mr. and Mrs. Powers Gouraud, and after a sojourn of several months in Europe the husband returned to this city and took up a residence apart from his wife, who returned to her mother, Mrs. Amy Crocker-Ashie-Gillig-Gouraud, wife of Powers Gouraud's elder brother. At the time of the marriage in London in 1903 the bride was only 19 years old and an heiress to a large fortune, which will be increased by what she will inherit from her mother.

Powers Gouraud, son of Colonel George Gouraud, an American who for many years has resided in London, was rather less fortunate from a financial standpoint than was his bride, and his friends were free in their belief that he had made as good a match as had his brother, who had married the mother. Gouraud's marriage to his brother's stepdaughter made a rather involved relationship, as his sister-in-law became his mother-in-law and his brother became his stepfather-in-law, while his bride became his stepfather's sister-in-law, and by marriage she became sister-in-law to her mother.

WIFE RETAINS HER FORTUNE.
Gouraud has been on the stage. He has played in the chorus and in other parts "for experience," his friends say, but after the marriage such a necessity was no longer present, and the couple lived in a manner which was not that of a bride. By the provisions under which she came into her fortune it was tied up in such a manner as to make her complete mistress of it, to make what contingency might arise through marriage.

After a trip to Europe Mrs. Gouraud took up her residence with the Jacksons at 430 Madison avenue, while her husband sought his quarters elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Gouraud are indefatigable "first nighters," but recently the young woman had accompanied them, rarely permitting the privacy of her home. She is described as being rather a retiring disposition. It is a source of speculation among those who are acquainted with the circumstances as to whether her personality is playing any part in the young woman's career, for it is recalled that her mother has made three matrimonial ventures, each attended by romantic and tragic conditions.

DAUGHTER OF AMY CROCKER.
Powers Gouraud was married to Gladys Crocker, daughter of Amy Crocker and her husband, R. Porter Ashie, with whom she had lived in 1902, in the church of St. Charles in Paris. In London three years ago after a more or less extensive tour the couple took up their residence in this city and they seemed happy. The good fortune of the Gourauds, who had come to this city with nothing more than their names and the talents they possessed, in marrying two very wealthy women was a topic of gossip.

FATALLY HURT IN A BRAWL

Italian Makes an Attack on a
San Francisco Salesman.

SAN RAFAEL, Oct. 15.—Two posses are searching the surrounding country for Ernest Nerviani, an Italian, who is believed to have fatally injured Thomas Rogers, a salesman employed by the Lands Shoe Company of Fillmore street, San Francisco, in a street brawl last night.

Rogers was walking along the street when Nerviani and some other Italians passed him. Some one brushed against Rogers and an angry dispute followed, during which the latter was heard to ask Nerviani why he didn't "learn to speak United States."

The Italian kept up the dispute. "Vote for Bell!" shouted Rogers. Nerviani then seized hold of Rogers and began striking him. There was a brief mix-up and Rogers fell on the pavement, where blood began streaming from his nose and ears.

He was taken to a hospital, where it was found that he had sustained a compound fracture of the skull. It was said by the physicians attending him at midnight that the chances were against his recovery.

Nerviani and the other Italians fled after the attack. Rogers' friends do not possess who immediately organized to hunt them down and a third party is surrounding Nerviani's home at San Anselmo.

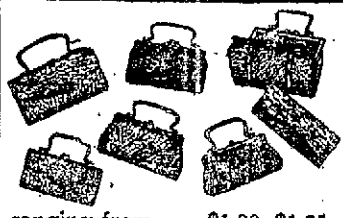

FIFTH HUSBAND WAS HER FIRST

PORTAGE, Wis., Oct. 15.—The marriage here last week of Joseph Waldo and Mrs. Martha Kennedy differed from the usual run of marriages, because it was, after a lapse of years, the second appearance at the altar of the same pair.

When they were younger they met, loved, married and raised a family. Mr. Waldo did not prosper, and after several years of marriage, Mrs. Waldo concluded that she could do better alone. There was no quarrel or differences, other than the financial one, between the man and the wife, and when the separation took place Mrs. Waldo accompanied her husband to the station and kissed him goodbye. Then she obtained a divorce.

After a trial of single blessedness Mrs. Waldo concluded that condition of life was not as satisfactory as she had anticipated, and married again. Being left a widow, she married a third time, and a fourth time, the present marriage to her first husband being her fifth matrimonial venture.

Mr. Waldo in the years that have elapsed since his separation seems to have found no other woman who could take the place in his affections occupied by the first Mrs. Waldo, and having accumulated in the meantime a snug little fortune, he sought out his first love again, wooed her and led her to the altar for the second time.

Sale of Hundreds of Dainty Undergarments

ALL ARE UNDERPRICED—THERE'S A SAVING ON EVERY GARMENT YOU BUY DURING THIS SALE of Muslin Underwear—a sale that is remarkable for the vast number of garments, the many different styles, the daintiness of each design, the reliable quality and the unusual lowness of the prices.

It is owing to buying a very large quantity and the fact that the manufacturer was overstocked that price concessions were made that we are enabled to offer these garments at much less than their real value.

These garments are perfect in every detail—not a poorly made one in the lot—not a single garment that has passed through the factory without inspection. The illustrations show only a few of the hundreds embraced in this sale.

Come to Hale's tomorrow and replenish your wardrobe with dainty undergarments at money-saving prices.

Emil Lehnhardt left yesterday for the southern part of the State, where he will spend a few weeks, and hopes to return fully recovered from his recent illness.

PATHETIC END OF GIRL'S TRIP

Travels From Iowa Alone, Meets
Strange Man, and Is Missing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—On Saturday Louis Brese of 1325 Steiner street and his wife prepared to welcome to their home Brese's sister-in-law, Miss Lulu Lancaster, who was coming on a visit here from her home in Iowa. But the girl did not arrive Saturday. Nor did she put in an appearance yesterday, although the train on which Miss Lancaster traveled reached the city on time. Brese grew apprehensive, as the traveler was but 19 years of age and possessed of more than usual beauty. Fearing that the girl had been abducted on her journey or drugged and led astray by a chance acquaintance on the train, he reported the matter to the police and learned that his apprehensions were well grounded.

Miss Lancaster arrived in the city Saturday, but during the long, monotonous days of steaming over dreary desert she had fallen under the influence of a strange man, and when the train reached this city was forced by him to go to a transient rooming house on O'Farrell street, near Fillmore. There the couple stayed Saturday night. She left this place with the man yesterday morning, and the police are now searching the city to find her.

The authorities hope that in rescuing the girl and arresting her companion they may disclose the operations of a ring of infamous creatures who make a practice of preying upon young women traveling alone.

Brese was overcome with grief when he learned the fate that had befallen his wife's kinswoman. He spoke of her pleasing qualities, her brightness, and how he and his wife had looked forward to the pleasure of having her in their home. The need of a cordon of police to protect a defenseless girl traveling alone had not been contemplated.

MAN HELD FOR DYNAMITE MURDER

BISBEE, Ariz., Oct. 15.—A man whose name is not known but whose name is believed to be Simpkins, a member of the Western Federation of Miners, connected by the authorities with the dynamite murder of Governor Frank Steunenberg, of Idaho, is under arrest in Cananea, Sonora, Mexico, and is being held there by the request of the Arizona Rangers.

The prisoner is said to answer closely the official description of Simpkins, Captain Tom Rynning, of the Rangers, who returned yesterday from Cananea, so states but he is not positive of the man's identity. Rynning has sent for a man in Arizona who is well acquainted with the real Simpkins to go to Cananea to identify the suspect.

LOOK FORWARD TO FREULER CONCERT

BERKELEY, Oct. 15.—Music lovers are eagerly looking forward to the concert to be given by Miss Clara Freuler, the well-known soprano of the College Town, at Hamilton Auditorium, in Oakland, on the evening of October 19. QUESTION CLUB TO GIVE DANCING PARTY

ALAMEDA, Oct. 15.—The Question club, composed of girls at the High school, is to give a dance at Harmonie hall on the evening of October 27. Arrangements have been completed for the affair and it promises to be very enjoyable.

UNUSUAL COSTER SPORT.
The annual sports of the Costermongers' Federation included donkey races, hand barrow races and other events which appealed particularly to the coarser world, but the quaintest item on the program was the half-mile basket race, in which each competitor had to carry ten baskets on his head. There were eight entries for this race, but only two contestants succeeded in covering the whole distance without disaster.—Graphic.

54,600 Meals Did Him No Good

How One Man Wasted Fifty Years of His Life—Thousands Like Him.

"What's the use of eatin', anyhow?" said the scrawny dyspeptic to his round, prosperous-looking friend. "Here I've been eatin' three times a day, and sometimes twice a day for fifty years, and look at me now. I'm rawboned and skinny, still at the bottom of the ladder, sour on the world, and a pessimist. I know it, and I can't help it. If I had it to do over again I would take care of my stomach, for I don't believe I ever really relished a meal in my life, not even mother's Christmas dinners, and I firmly believe that my way of eating, or whatever it was, brought along with it darkness and impossibility of success."

"You're right," nodded his companion. "Of course, that isn't always the case. But in this age we must not only trust the Lord and keep our powder dry, but we must swallow sunshine with our food. Cheerfulness, especially while eating, which is the most essential act of man, is as necessary to him as sunshine is to the flowers. Nothing can be produced in darkness."

"But this is what you haven't been doing, Mr. Dyspeptic. Your brain and your stomach, remember, are twins, and you have to treat them accordingly. Why not start now and repair the damage you've done. It is never too late, you know."

"You mean at my age?" And suppose you can't always get the sunshine?" "Absolutely, yes. Science has made it possible to get the sunshine, the health and the strength that your stomach needs, all put up together in little tablets. They call them Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the most effective tablets in the world for this very thing. One ingredient in these tablets digests 3000 grains of food without the help of the stomach. Two tablets after each meal can do more work, quicker work and better work, in digesting a heavy meal, than the stomach can itself. The stomach need not work at all. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets does all the work, and gives your jaded stomach a rest, the rest it needs. Meanwhile you cure yourself of brash, irritation, burning sensation, heartburn, sour stomach, acidity, fermentation, bloating, and the worst cases of dyspepsia and indigestion. You get rid of these for all time. And then, besides, you can eat all you want and whenever you want, and you will also relish mother's Christmas dinners if you will take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after eating. That's the sunshine I was talking about. Then your face will reflect the internal change going on, you'll be more energetic, your mind will be clearer, you'll have more confidence in yourself, you'll be happier, and you'll be yourself again."

"Your heart will change and you'll feel rosy. You'll enjoy your meals—and live. Let's walk down to the drug-store and let me introduce you to one little package of these Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. You can get them at any drug store in the world for only five cents a package. It is worth it, Mr. Dyspeptic."

PLEASANTON, Oct. 15.—Catholic ladies will give a bazaar here November 1, 2 and 3. A large committee is busily engaged making preparations and about sixty ladies will have charge of the different booths. The list of booth managers and their assistants are as follows:

EYE MYSTERY

It is almost a mystery how one glass can be inserted within another and remain unseen. It is wonderful to execute this mechanical marvel so that the two lenses combined are more valuable than either lens separately.

This is the Kryptok, a combination, which gives clear vision for distance or reading in a single lens, no matter what the age may be.

RHEUMATISM

TROUBLESOME PAINS AND ACHES

While Rheumatism is usually worse in Winter because of the cold and dampness of a changing atmosphere, it is by no means a Winter disease entirely. Persons in whose blood the uric acid, which produces the disease, has collected, feel its troublesome pains and aches all the year round. The cause of Rheumatism is a sour, acid condition of the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter, which the natural avenues of bodily waste have failed to carry off. This refuse matter coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid which is absorbed by the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. Rheumatic persons are almost constant sufferers; the nagging pains in joints and muscles, are ever present under the most favorable climatic conditions, while exposure to dampness or an attack of indigestion will often bring on the severer symptoms even in warm, pleasant weather. Liniments, plasters, lotions, etc., relieve the pain and give the sufferer temporary comfort, but are in no sense curative; because Rheumatism is not a disease that can be rubbed away or drawn out with a plaster. S. S. S. is the best treatment for Rheumatism; it goes down into the blood and attacks the disease at its head, and by neutralizing the acid and driving it out, and building up the thin, sour blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. Being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, S. S. S. will not injure the system in the least. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice without charge.

A Badly Needed Train Connection.

The coast train from Los Angeles and Monterey, which arrives in San Francisco at 11:45 p. m., does not connect at San Jose with any train coming up on the east side of the bay. Hence passengers for Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and other towns on the eastern shore are compelled to cross the ferry late at night or lie over in San Francisco. The experience in either case is very disagreeable, besides wasting time. A train connecting at San Jose with the coast line express would get into Oakland at 11:30 p. m., allowing passengers for this side to reach their homes not later than twelve o'clock. The Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Exchange ought to take this matter up with the Southern Pacific officials and get a night service installed if possible between Oakland and San Jose that would give the towns on the eastern shore close connection with the night train from the South. Such a service would be a great accommodation to the people of Niles, Hayward and San Leandro, as well as to the inhabitants of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda. The Southern Pacific ought to give us such a service, and will do so, we think, if the matter is properly presented to the company's officials by the commercial bodies on this side of the bay. Possibly the traffic would not be large enough to be remunerative at the start, but it would grow rapidly and in a short time would pay. A night train would develop considerable local traffic along the line between Oakland and San Jose if maintained for a while.

Plain Clothes for Policemen.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I beg to make some suggestions based upon my experience as a deputy sheriff for several years in Alameda county as follows: I think the law would be subserved more completely if the police were disguised, or in other words, dressed in plain clothes. Another suggestion I would offer is that the officers wear overcoats over their uniforms, thus disguising their identity and enabling the officer to perform more perfect work; also that a provision be made that a short gun loaded with buckshot be provided and secreted in the overcoat pocket to be used on short notice on footpads, etc.

P. J. KELLER.

DEAD ONTO THEM.

A statesman, in an argument, had turned the tables rather neatly on his opponent. Senator Dolliver, in congratulation, said: "You remind me of a Fort Dodge doctor, Dr. X—. This gentleman once had a grave dug for a patient, supposed to be dying, who afterward recovered, and over this error of judgment the doctor was joked for many years.

"Once he attended, in consultation with three confreres, another patient. The patient really died. After death, as the physicians discussed the case together, one of them said:

"Since quick burial is necessary, we might inter the body temporarily. I understand our brother here has a vacant grave on hand."

"Dr. X— smiled.

"Yes," he said. "I believe I am the only physician at present whose graves are not all filled."—Harper's Weekly.

"Well, law sakes, Sairy, can't we buy some?"

Ruef Playing With Fire.

Abe Ruef displayed considerable forethought in providing the meeting called to protest against the inadequacy of the police protection afforded in San Francisco, and the criminal negligence of the officials, with a chairman and secretary, a set of cut and dried resolutions in advance, but he is playing with edged tools. The public endurance can be pressed beyond the limit. Ruef essays to control every political party in the city but his restless activity goes a good deal farther. He has his agents and spokesmen in every public gathering, and he seeks to direct all public action. His success in taking possession of the meeting last Saturday, organizing it before an opportunity was given to discuss its objects and officering the organization with his satellites is a tribute to his talents and cleverness, but it was, nevertheless, a gross insult to decency and fair play. It was an affront to public opinion that is likely to create a most dangerous impression. It may incite the belief that Ruef must be got rid of at all hazards. A large and intelligent community cannot always be misgoverned, plucked, abused and outraged with impunity. When the agencies of government are being systematically prostituted to the ends of corruption and crime a supreme necessity arises for a remedy, lawful or otherwise. Conditions in San Francisco are as revolting as they are desperate, and Ruef had better go slow.

SAMUEL WAS ALL IN.

The minister of a negro church in Richmond gave out a funeral notice one Sunday as follows:

"I have to announce to you, bredren and sisters, dat 'de funeral of de only survivin' son of de late Thomas Pinkers an' his widow, Martha Jane Pinkers, both deceased, will take place an' come to occurrence on Tuesday next at 12 m. noon precisely.

"An' I have to say, bredren and sisters, dat contributions for carryin' out dat funeral will be in order an' acceptations, or else de funeral can't take place, exceptin' and save only as a plain burial; fo' Samuel Pinkers has got jes' money enough to bury himself without any obsequious ceremonies, such as he deserves."—Harper's Weekly.

WEED AND WASTE.

About their gardens to and fro
I see the busy people go,
Or each in private orchard plot
Seeking a fruit that cometh not.

In sunny light of hopeful morns
They seek to gather grapes of thorns,
And ask a nurture for their needs
From ragged, unproductive weeds.

The weeds are fair in flower and shoot,
But only bear a spurious fruit;
And that which on the trees they find
Is tart of taste and harsh of rind.

There in the gardens they complain
It is too late to sow again—
The grief of laborings misplaced,
Of barren hours and seedtime's waste.

O blind in age and rash in youth,
Who have not learned this common truth,
In earth or spirit that alone
Is harvested which hath been sown.

IDENTIFIED BY HIS ACCUSER

Thomas W. Clark Has Preliminary Hearing on Charge of Robbery.

The preliminary examination of Thomas W. Clark, accused by Charles W. Cook of having attempted to commit robbery, was begun in department Two of the police court this morning. Cook absolutely identified the defendant as the man who had attempted to rob him on the night of August 31, at Twenty-second and Market streets. Cook stated that as the man was about to search him a car came around the corner and threw its light on the footpad's face, revealing his features plainly. Cook states that he is absolutely certain that Clark is the holdup man. Clark testified that he was not the man wanted, but he could not tell where he was at the time Cook was held up. Mrs. Nellie Murphy and Michael Murphy testified to Clark's good character. The case was then continued until tomorrow for further examination.

HIS DEATH IS TO BE SIGNAL

President Castro Expected to Die—Venezuelan Outbreak Will Result.

PORT OF SPAIN, Island of TRINIDAD, Oct. 15.—According to the latest advices received from Caracas, Venezuela, the condition of President Castro, who has been ill for some time past, has grown worse. It is asserted that he can no longer speak and move and his death may occur in a few days. In order to conceal the facts in the case, the newspapers of Caracas have been publishing reports of acts of clemency on the part of the president and texts of numerous telegrams of congratulations purporting to have been received by him on his reported complete restoration to health. In connection with the critical state of President Castro's health it is asserted that an uprising which is likely to become general throughout Venezuela is certain to occur on the announcement of his death. The signal for the outbreak it is further stated, will be given by the inhabitants of the western states of the republic, who already are armed. The inhabitants of the rest of the interior of Venezuela are described as being undecided owing to their ignorance of the actual condition of the present, which is carefully concealed by those in immediate attendance upon him.

SMALL FIRE AT THE FORUM CAFE

There was a small fire at the Forum Cafe at 11:30 o'clock last night. The blaze, however, which started in the linen room, immediately adjacent to the banquet hall, was quickly extinguished by the waiters of the place before much damage was done. The waiters, under the leadership of Steward Sharp, formed a bucket brigade, and kept the flames under control until the fire department arrived, when they were quickly quenched. The wood work, linings and carpets on the floor were damaged to the extent of about $100.

Son of Late Chancellor is Punished for Publishing "Recollections."

COLMAR, Germany, Oct. 15.—Prince Alexander von Hohenlohe, younger son of the late Chancellor von Hohenlohe, who recently caused the publication of the letters "Recollections," and was rebuked by Emperor William for his tactlessness in so doing, visited Chancellor von Buelow at Homburg, where they talked over the publication of his father's private diaries, returned here and sent his resignation as district governor to the governor-general of Alsace-Lorraine. This step on the part of Prince Alexander was accepted in official circles, where the publication of the "Recollections" was regarded as giving too great offense to the Emperor to be overlooked.

BIG BALLOON RACE PLANNED

Cars of Aero Club Will Make Ascents in Pittsfield This Week.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Oct. 15.—Arrangements were started today for a balloon race to be held in this city between cars of the Aero Club of America, the latter part of this week, probably on Saturday. Captain Homer W. Hodge of New York, president of the club, has written to Superintendent Peeles of the local gas company to make arrangements for 400,000 or 500,000 cubic feet of gas for the big bags. This amount, which represents practically the capacity of the gas company, will be sufficient to supply three of the larger balloons or four of the smaller ones. Three of the cars expected to enter are L'Orion, Centaur and Nirvana, of the Aero club. St. Louis has been mentioned as the place for holding the race but the majority of the prominent members of the Aero club favor this city.

SEEK ARREST OF PEABODY

Kentuckians Claim Mutual's President is Guilty of Coercion.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The Tribune today says word reached this city last night that certain Kentuckians were urging that a warrant be sworn out for President Peabody's arrest on a charge of "coercion of agents," when the Mutual's president visits Frankfort tomorrow. Coercion is a criminal offense in the Bluegrass State, and many of the Kentuckians are thoroughly aroused, especially over Colonel Biscoe Hindman's dismissal. It is to explain this that Mr. Peabody will appear before Commissioner Pruitt in the Frankfort State house. It is believed several managers who have resigned recently, or have been dismissed, including Colonel Hindman, F. O. Page of Detroit, Herbert N. Fell of this city and E. O. Sutton of Massachusetts, will attend tomorrow's hearing.

BURTON MUST GO TO PRISON

Kansas Senator Is Refused a Rehearing by U. S. Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The Supreme court of the United States today denied the petition of former United States Senator Burton of Kansas for a rehearing in the case in which he is under sentence of imprisonment and fine under the charge of accepting an attorney's fee in a case in which the government was interested in while he was serving as senator. The effect of the decision will be immediate imprisonment of Burton, unless his attorneys devise some other means of postponing the execution of the sentence.

SHORT STORIES RUIN MIND, SAYS PROFESSOR

Charles Mills Gayley Declares That Such Books Are Not Retained in the Memory.

BERKELEY, Oct. 15.—"Read the short story and you will ruin your memory!" This is the unqualified statement made by Professor Charles Mills Gayley of the University of California, head of the English department at the big institution of learning. This statement was made to his class in "Great Books," one of the most popular courses now being given at the university.

"The short story destroys the memory faster than anything I know of," said Professor Gayley. "We read the short story for mere amusement and in an hour after finishing such a story cannot tell what we have read. On the other hand, the long story improves the memory, for we must remember what has been gone over to follow the plot to the end.

"I advise all of you to drop the habit of reading short stories. Read the book that compels you to remember what you have gone over to continue the thread of the narration."

WOULD REFUSE STRIKE ORDER

Majority of Switchmen Not Ready to Quit Work Oct. 25, As Planned.

CHICAGO Oct. 15—The division of the forces of the railway switchmen into three companies make it extremely improbable that there will be any strike on October 25, as contemplated. This became evident yesterday when Grand Master P. H. Morrissey of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen arrived in Chicago with discouraging reports. He pointed out that only about 30 per cent of the switchmen in the country would respond to a strike order issued by the Switchmen's union and that, therefore, the movement would be doomed to failure.

Of the 4,000 men engaged in switching our brotherhood controls 23,000 said Mr. Morrissey, which would leave allowing for the unorganized men, a minority who may be depended on to go out.

Mr. Morrissey added that he took little stock in the rumors being circulated to the effect that a great tie up of the railroad business was in prospect.

Movements such as this one must be conducted slowly and conservatively, he said. For some time the Brotherhood of Trainmen has been preparing to make an appeal for higher wages and and eight hour day for its switchmen members. Our plan of action is fully formulated but we are not going to rush into trouble.

PRICE OF DIAMONDS TO JUMP 20 PER CENT

NEW YORK Oct. 15—Wholesale dealers in diamonds have sent notices to the retailers that diamonds will cost 20 per cent more this season than they did last year. The reasons given are that the rough stones received from South Africa are inferior to those of other years and do not yield in cutting as high grade gems in the commercial sizes as formerly. Again, the cost of cutting and polishing stones is greater because cutters and polishers are getting higher wages than ever before.

NURSE OF ROOSEVELT'S MOTHER IS DEAD

NEW YORK Oct. 15—Nannie Jackson, the colored nurse of President Roosevelt's mother is dead at Evergreen, L. I. She was 94 years old. She was brought to Connecticut a slave by Stephen Bullock, the President's maternal grandfather.

WITNESS IS HELD IMMUNE

Standard Oil Man Refused to Answer Questions in Ohio Trial.

CINDLAY Ohio, Oct. 15—The trial of the Standard Oil Company of Ohio for alleged conspiracy against trade was resumed here today after adjournment since last Friday noon. It is the intention of the prosecution to occupy the day with witnesses who are connected with the Standard or its alleged constituent companies. The trial attracted few persons today. Not more than a dozen spectators were present when court opened at 5 o'clock.

John O'Brien of Lima, Ohio superintendent of the Buckeye pipe line company, was put on the stand immediately. When asked what his business was, the witness appealed to the court. He said the answer would tend to criminate him and asked for immunity from further prosecution. Attorney Phelps, for the prosecution, remarked:

"Well, I guess we will have to make him immune," and the court ordered the witness to answer questions. This order extends the immunity. No more objections to answering questions was made and the witness, after stating that he was superintendent of the Lima division of the company, gave the geographical bounds of this division.

Mr. O'Brien described the process of gathering the oil from the producers' tanks. On the west of the division, the connecting line with that of the company is the Indiana Pipe Line Company. Although Attorney Phelps said it was well known that the Indiana pipe line ran to the refinery at Whiting, Ind., the witness said he had never been to Whiting and would not testify from knowledge. There was also an eastern connection for the lines of the Buckeye, but the witness could give no details.

BAKERS STRIKE FOR WEEKLY REST DAY

MONTPELIER, France, Oct. 15—The local working bakers today declared a general strike because of the refusal of the proprietors of the bakeries to accord them a weekly day of rest as provided for by the law. The city authorities have appealed to the government officials for the assistance of military bakers in order to prevent a bread famine.

ELECTRIC GLOBE IS STOLEN FROM PORCH

ALAMEDA, Oct. 15.—The most unique theft in this city to this time was made at the residence of Joseph Halton, at 2020 San Jose avenue, Saturday night. When Halton entered his home at 11 o'clock the electric light on the porch was burning but ten minutes later when he went to extinguish it the globe had been stolen from the porch.

ANNEXATION IS DISCUSSED

Many Melrose Improvers Are Opposed to Incorporation With Oakland.

The regular meeting of the Melrose Improvement club was held at the schoolhouse Saturday evening, October 13, President McDonald and Secretary McFall in their respective places. About fifty members and visitors attended. Mr. Healy made the suggestion that the movement taken up by the club some months ago in the direction of incorporation be once more resumed, and on motion, duly carried, three members were appointed to act and report at the next meeting.

A petition to be sent to the postmaster-general at Washington was read, asking that the postoffice now at old Melrose now be transferred to new Melrose, as it will then be central.

Mr. Crane was appointed as a committee of one to attend to the house numbering of Melrose. The much-talked of annexation was then opened. Mr. Muller of the Latham Terrace Improvement club spoke upon the matter but did not appear to win many converts. Mr. Cranberg of the Elmhurst Board of Trade advised the people of Melrose and any other town in Alameda county to keep away from annexation giving as a comparison the city of Chicago. His remarks gave new life to the argument. Mr. Taylor spoke against annexation and said a city and county government would be the only issue to win him over to Oakland.

Many members of the club stated that the matter was not fully understood as to which was best for Melrose.

On motion, duly seconded, the club will call a special meeting for Friday, October 19, at Melrose schoolhouse.

The club earnestly invites the people of the recently annexed districts of Oakland to attend, and also would like Alameda city Berkeley and Emeryville to send representatives.

ELKINS' LAW TEST TODAY

New York Central in Court Charged With Giving Sugar Rebates.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The trial of the New York Central railroad company for the alleged giving of rebates for some $28,000 to the American Sugar Refining company on sugar shipments to the west is scheduled to begin today in the United States Circuit Court, criminal branch. This will be the first trial for the infraction of the Elkins law ever undertaken in this city.

With this action is inaugurated a sitting of the Federal Criminal Court that may be expected to last with its successive terms for at least a year, and probably much longer. The indictment on which the New York Central will be tried is only one of a group of six against the corporations, the railroad and four men connected, respectively with the two concerns.

The trial of these will be pushed as soon as the first one is disposed of. Two more indictments which were found against the sugar corporation and the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad in the early summer also will be tried. Eight more in turn follow these. They were reported last Monday.

SEEKS PROOF OF BIGAMY

Mrs. Emma Botello Says She Will Prosecute if Her Husband Remarried.

"My husband has deeply wronged me, and if I find it certain that he has remarried, I shall charge him with bigamy," said pretty Mrs. Emma Botello of Haywards. Continuing, the woman said:

"Friends have told me over and over again that they are positive that Manuel is married again. They say that they have seen the marriage license that purports to make Mary Cabral and my husband man and wife. As soon as I am positive of that fact, and have the proofs, I shall have my husband arrested."

Mrs. Botello is the mother of an eight-months-old baby girl, and because her husband has failed to spend money for the support of herself and the child the woman has been forced to labor hard for a year. Even then she has been barely able to sustain herself, and had it not been for the assistance of friends and help obtained from her parents, Mrs. Botello and her child would have been in the poorhouse.

Manuel Botello left home a year ago this month. He sailed direct to Portugal. He left no word with his wife, but disappeared without her knowledge. For some reason Mrs. Botello did not know that her husband had deserted her and made an effort to locate him. Finally she learned the whole story and was told by the man's friends that he had gone to Portugal to claim as a bride the companion of his early childhood. The wife awaited the return of her husband, which occurred eight months afterward. He was accompanied by a woman, Mary Cabral, whom many declare is the wife whom he married in his native land.

Soon after his return Botello's wife in Haywards swore to a complaint charging her husband with failure to provide. The man was arrested yesterday, and now faces a more serious charge should the wife see fit to press her suit. She declares she will do so for the sake of her child and herself.

CROKER WINS DAMAGE SUIT

London Paper Will Apologize for Tammany Article and Pay Costs.

LONDON, Oct. 15—Lawyers representing the Amalgamated Press, publishers of the London magazine, against which Richard Croker brought suit for damages, on the ground of defamatory statements made in an article headed "Tammany in England," in which Mr. Croker was charged with having used his office as chief of Tammany Hall for purposes of financial profit, announce that the case has been amicably settled out of court. It was added that counsel was not at present permitted to give the terms of settlement.

It was learned, however, that the terms include the publication in the next number of the London Magazine of a full withdrawal of the statements complained of and an apology and probably a statement that the cases of offending articles will be discontinued, as the defendants have undertaken to make no further personal references to Mr. Croker therein. The defendants will pay Mr. Croker's costs.

SUSPICIOUS LOOKING MEN HANGING ABOUT

ALAMEDA, Oct. 15.—J. J. Hyman, whose residence is at 2263 Lincoln avenue, reported to the police yesterday that during Saturday night for a number of hours two suspicious looking men had been hanging around his house. When they saw him sitting at a window they walked away and he was unable to see where they went to.

RISKS IN RAILWAY JOURNEYS.
The idea that a man who goes on a railway journey takes his life in his hand and is rather more likely than not to meet with an untimely death at the first curve the train negotiates is scarcely borne out by the fact that the chances against any one passenger meeting his death on the railway are 25 million to 1. This immunity from disaster reflects considerable credit upon the companies, but still more upon engine drivers and signal men, whose skill and care are the main factors in the safety of the passenger.—London Court Journal

BIG SHORTAGE IS ADMITTED

Toronto Banker Says Ontario Institution Has Lost $1,250,000.

TORONTO, Ontario, Oct. 15—General Manager McGill of the wrecked Ontario bank, admits a shortage of $1,250,000. Bankers in estimating the probability of their guarantee being enforced place the loss through McGill's speculation at $500,000 more. McGill also admitted that these speculations were carried on without the directors' knowledge, but he declared for the ultimate good of the bank. The directors saw the management's operations ran the gamut of the most speculative stocks on the New York market and were even carried into the wheat pit in Chicago.

And yet in spite of, or, more truthfully, because of this paucity of root words, the language is a facile and exact tool for the expression of the widest ranges of thought. About forty short syllables, some used as prefixes and others sandwiched between the roots and the terminations given above, afford expression of a great variety of ideas in connection with that for which the root is a fixed symbol. A dictionary, published from the office of the London "Review of Reviews," shows thirty-five such additions to the root form, forming so many Esperanto words, of which no two are identical in meaning. Only two of them have so many as five syllables; twenty-five of them have less than four syllables. To translate them into their exact English equivalents requires more than 150 words.

EXACTNESS AND FULLNESS.

In writing or speaking Esperanto one needs only to know what well-known root words have been adopted, and what is the exact and fixed meaning of the auxiliary syllables, in order to make for himself words expressing his full idea. Whether the Esperantist addressed has met with the particular combination or not does not matter—he knows instantly what is meant. Some further examples of this fullness and exactness of the speech, reached without burden to the mind of its students, will show the facts. We say in English, ox, cow, calf, beef, veal. In Esperanto the root word bovo is used in every word that relates in any way to this species of animal. Bovo, bovine, bovid, bovy, bovidajo translate the English words above in the order given. We say freezing, cold, chilly, cool, tepid, lukewarm, warm, hot, torrid, etc. Esperantists use one root, varma, for the expression of every idea of temperature, and show its degree by prefixes and terminal syllables.

GRAMMAR REDUCED TO ZERO. Mark Twain after studying German, said that it is hardly worth while to have a good friend in Germany if one should have to speak of him to the Germans, since to do this requires an interminable series of changes in the articles, the adjective and the noun in order to tell the truth about the friend or avoid defaming him or her. The verb in French I am told, takes over 200 changes of form. Divide

During the sessions, plays are performed, songs sung, recitations given, and every effort made to test, or rather to afford proof of, the practicability of the speech for the purposes of international communication. There is scarcely a university which lacks ardent advocates of the new auxiliary. And the only plea against it that seems worthy of consideration is that the ease with which it may be acquired and the delight men find in handling so efficient a tool of communication may make it, not simply an auxiliary for communication with foreigners, but to be adopted for home use, and gradually to supplant the existing tongues.

If sick headache is misery, what are Carter's Little Liver Pills if they will positively cure it? People who have used them speak frankly of their worth. They are small and easy to take.

SEEKS GOLD AT AGE OF 85

Old Prospector Who Has Lost Two Fortunes Starts for Klondike.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 15.—Having lost two large fortunes, one made on the San Francisco stock exchange nearly half a century ago and the other gained in northwest speculation, Jesse Cochran, 85 years old, still undaunted, is on his way to the Klondike in the quest of gold. For him the rigors of winter on the Yukon have no terrors, despite his advanced age.

A twelve-month ago the old man felt the blood of his youth surge through his veins as he read of the finds of the Nevada gold fields. He resolved to go there at all hazards and without saying a word to either of his sons, Thomas Cochran, a prosperous Railroad Avenue merchant, and William Cochran, who is with the Hanson Jewelry house, he set out. In Goldfields he accumulated $1500, and it is with this money that he purchased an outfit and has gone to the richer fields of the Yukon.

TROLLEY CAR HITS FREIGHT

Runs Away Down Chicago Hill And One Man is Fatally Injured.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—A street car with brakes out of order, without sand and running on a bad rail, crashed into a moving freight train on the Chicago Belt Railroad at West Fifty-first street and Kansas City avenue last night, and twelve persons were injured. The gates were down at the crossing and the motorman saw the danger signals, but could not stop his car, owing to its deficient equipment. The condition of Samuel Wilson, a street car conductor, who was riding on the car, is critical. Both his legs were broken and he was injured internally.

LOSS OF 50,000 IN FIRE IN CINCINNATI

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 15.—Fire completely destroyed the plant of the John P. Drump Company, manufacturers of steamboat furniture, early today. Loss, $50,000, partly insured.

FIERCE FIGHT ON TRANSPORT

Saki-Mad Seamen on Lawton Subdued and Placed in the Brig.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—Nearly twenty-five bluejackets participated in a fight on board of the United States navy transport Lawton while in port at Yokohama, and to restore peace the marines had to be called out. The battle was a fierce one and lasted for about fifteen minutes. Blood covered the decks, and there were a score of black eyes and sore heads when it terminated. Two of the sailors were arrested and were still in the brig when the vessel reached this port yesterday.

The men are discharged bluejackets from the Asiatic fleet, and when at Yokohama they were given a short leave. The men drank too freely of sake, and when they came aboard they commenced to quarrel among themselves. Blows followed and in a short time the entire crowd was waging a fearful battle. They swayed back and forth on the deck and paid no heed to the cries of the officers. The marines were called out, and succeeded in quelling the riotous ones. An investigation was made and two of the men were ordered under arrest. They will probably be court-martialed when the vessel arrives at Mare Island and be given dishonorable discharges.

Human Blood Marks. A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Eac, Ky. WILLIAMS SIGNS JOCKEY MILLER

Gossip From the Track and Paddock.

By LEE DEMIER.

Advices from New York state that President Thomas Williams was a very busy man Saturday at Belmont park. In the morning he secured a contract with the crack eastern lightweight jockey, Walter Miller, from Thomas Welsh and W. A. Stanton, who are in charge of the boy so far as riding is concerned.

The big president of the California Jockey Club became deeply impressed with Miller's saddle work and did not let up in his effort until he closed the contract. Miller will continue to ride in the east until the close of the season at Benning, when he will leave for Emeryville and will report to "Doc" Rowell, who trains Mr. Williams' horses.

In the afternoon Williams announced that his organization has reinstated "Boots" Durnell to good standing. It is understood that John W. Gans, for whom Durnell is engaged to train this year, and his influence with President Williams, with the above result. McCafferty is still under the ban.

At Belmont park George C. Bennett's good horse, Disabill, who was ridden by "Big B" Knapp, captured the rich Municipal Handicap. Barney Schriber's Nealon was a starter in the race, but finished in the rack.

Jockey Buchanan, who was assaulted and sent to the City Hospital in an unconscious condition a fortnight ago, has made his appearance at Churchill Downs. It will be fully a month before he is in condition to race.

Will Lewis, the Lexington horseman, has been engaged by George Hoile to succeed George Ham, whose horses have been broken as trainers. Lewis is now breaking the Gerat yearlings at Lexington.

Without a doubt Hannibal Bay is the most consistent horse now performing in the middle west. He was at Louisville at the July olds of 6 to 1, the get of Emin Bay, was paired from his field in the Traveling Passenger Agents' Handicap.

President Williams writes that there will be sixty horses on route to Emeryville from New York right after the Belmont meet. This lot does not include the horses of Schriber or Jennings.

It took the entire Pinkerton force and several sticks of dynamite to shake off two men who were on top of a box car at a viewing the race at Belmont Saturday.

The majority of the best horses who raced in the middle west this summer, are now performing at Dallas, Tex., which is now the best race meeting on the Texas circuit. The Savanillo bookies are now handling that meeting.

The horses of Jack Keene are on their journey west.

Press Agent James Scanlon also writes from New York, "Not sed."

Bookmakers Edward Avey and Sam Stephens, parties to the shooting of a fray in the betting ring at Churchill Downs the other day, were handed a $1000 fine each by the stewards of that club.

Vic Jenkins, who is at present valuing Jockey Dave Nichol, the crack western rider at Louisville, writes that there will be a number of horses leave the Downs for Emeryville right after that meeting.

The New York Jockey Club has approved the expenses of Mary Borgin's funeral, and furthermore, provided for the funeral. A public subscription has been started.

During the sixty days of racing at City Park track in New Orleans the coming winter, twenty-one stakes have added money values ranging from $100 to $5000, will be decided. The management has arranged the list of stakes and fixed the dates on which they are to be run, but has not decided what date entries will be closed. This announcement will come in a few days.

"Rumors are current among the turfmen of England that another 'American invasion' of their tracks is apt to take place next year," says the New York World. "It is reported that W. K. Vanderbilt, James R. Keene, Harry Belmont, Harry Payne Whitney and several other millionaires, lovers of the racehorse on this side, contemplating having extensive racing stables at British tracks next year. These reports have not been verified, but are to find credence in well informed turf circles. The anti-American feeling on the English turf is not near so strong as it was several years ago, but whether this is due to the absence of winning American stakes is an open question. HOORAY! HOORAY! OAKS WIN TWO

Morning Game Is 15 Innings in Length.

What do you think of that? The much-criticized Oakland baseball team, hero of many and many a defeat, actually won two games in succession, and that on the same day, before the Sunday crowds yesterday.

The scores were not very large, but the locals were on the long end of each one, and the fans were delighted accordingly.

The morning contest was a delay. It lasted fifteen innings, and there was excitement in nearly every one of them. Reidy was on the firing line for the Oaks and he exhibited no little control. True, he was in more than one tight place, but he managed to wriggle out with unflinching regularity, and to stow the game away at the finish.

Ray Hitt, the disabled veteran, and former mainstay of the Seals, started to do the twisting for his mates, but in the fourth round his play was winged by a little shifty and Captain Wilson sent Soldier Meyers to take his place. The locals finally managed to solve his delivery sufficiently to put a run over and pocket the game.

In the afternoon the Seals adopted Oakland's former style of making errors the feature of their performance, and as a consequence the locals had little difficulty in taking the second victory of the day.

HIS FORTUNE TO THE POOR

Son of Pittsburg Millionaire Devotes Life to Work in The Slums.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—Renouncing a life of ease and luxury to work with the poor in the slums, Rev. Edward Laughlin, son of the Pittsburg iron and steel multi-millionaire, has come to his city as assistant pastor of the Presbyterian chapel in one of the poorest sections. When he was graduated from Princeton and married the beautiful daughter of Judge Wilson, society held open its arms to the handsome man, heir to a vast fortune, all however, and decided to devote his life and fortune to the uplifting of unfortunate humanity. He entered the Princeton Theological seminary and was ordained with honors. In vain the elder Laughlin tried to persuade the young clergyman from his self-chosen task. The son was positively cured, and the elder Laughlin then threatened to disinherit him, but the young man would not be dissuaded.

When an article has been on the market for years and gains friends every year, it is safe to call this medicine worthy one. Such is Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It positively cures coughs and all Pulmonary diseases. One of the best known merchants in Mobile, Ala., says: "For five years my family has not been troubled with the winter coughs. We owe this to Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I know it has saved my children from many sick spells." Sold by Washington's Drug Store, Tenth and Washington streets.

Will be found an excellent remedy for sick headache. Carter's Little Liver Pills. Thousands of letters from people who have used them prove this fact. Try them.

DR. G. E. BRINCKERHOFF Has returned from his Eastern trip and can be found at his office, 115 Broadway, from 9 to 11 a. m. Afternoons by appointment.

CANDIDATES AT PLEASANTON

Republicans Hold a Rousing Rally in the Country Town.

The four points of the compass were illuminated Saturday night at Pleasanton, where the Republican county candidates were received by the populace. Not one bonfire, which is ever present at campaign meetings, but four blazing in the quiet little town, sending their flames and sparks skyward. The monster rally was called to order by Charles Gales, county committeeman, and W. H. Donahue was introduced as chairman.

The meeting was one of the most splendid omissions given the Republicans in the campaign, the whole town and countryside turning out. The atmosphere was filled with genuine enthusiasm for the ticket and both before and after the rally the streets were lined with men and boys meeting and greeting the various candidates. The big hall was jammed full of men, women and children and the structure shook and quaked with the outbursts which greeted the speakers.

GEORGE FRICK.

The first speaker to be presented to the meeting was George W. Frick, candidate for county superintendent of schools. He said: "I am glad to be here tonight. I must first thank your chairman for his flattering introduction. There are many reasons why I should feel good tonight. In the first place, this is the eighteenth night of our pilgrimage through the county, and in the second place, this is the largest meeting that has as yet attended our efforts. It is also a testimonial to your regard for your fellow-townsmen. T. W. Harris, who now occupies a position on the Superior bench of Alameda county, has said: 'I have taught in a school in a number of places in this county, am now teaching, have been nominated by the Republican party and ask your support.'"

M. J. KELLY.

County Treasurer M. J. Kelly followed Mr. Frick, asking for the support of Pleasanton voters.

GEORGE GRAY.

George Gray was the next presented, saying: "I hardly know just what to say to my friends in Pleasanton, for the chairman's remarks were almost too flattering. I am pleased, of course, to be here tonight. I don't want to be selfish and ask you to support the whole ticket, for they are the best men before you, as candidates for public office."

GEORGE S. PIERCE.

With much hand clapping and demonstration of a friendly nature, George Pierce, candidate for County Auditor, was presented as the favorite of the Native Daughters. "Who," facetiously remarked the chairman, "had decorated the hall in his honor." He said: "I assure you I am somewhat embarrassed by the introduction, but I sincerely hope that I have only friends here including the Native Daughters. I have had experience, as you know, in the office of County Clerk John P. Cook, and I feel that I have somewhat been fitted for the position of Auditor. If this large gathering is any index to what is to be done on election day I feel pretty safe in my candidacy."

EVERETT J. BROWN.

The candidate for the office of District Attorney, Everett Brown, was given a flattering ovation, on being presented to the audience. He urged support for the entire county and state ticket.

The proceedings were here interrupted by the entrance of Dr. Charles Tisdale, candidate for Coroner, bearing a large photograph of Judge Harris, followed by Congressman Knowland. The band struck up a march and the building shook with cheers for the popular and able jurist, Judge Harris.

DR. TIDDALE.

On reaching the platform Dr. Tisdale was called on for his address and explained his delay in arriving through the fact that he was unavoidably detained in Oakland. In part he said: "I feel at home here tonight for this is the home town of my friend Dr. Harris. I am a simple, every-day candidate for Coroner, that's my trouble. And I want my friends in Pleasanton to help me. I am a candidate to succeed the best Coroner the county ever had, Dr. Harris."

and through his kindness I have met many of you. All I ask you is to give me a vote on November 6th."

A solo by Mr. Oates of the "Elks" Quartette was loudly applauded by the filled auditorium and he had to repeat the number.

JUDGE HARRIS.

A telegram announced the inability of Judge Harris to be present. "Plain Bill Harris," the favorite of the district by about five majority of an official demonstration, was next presented. Judge Harris said: "When I arrived here today I was ill, but after a few hours of climate here, and greetings of old friends, I feel much improved. This is the eighteenth night of our candidates have been on the road, and I assure you all that time I have looked forward to this meeting. So I am going to take more than the usual two minutes' talk with you."

"The people of this county have the opportunity this election of voting for four judges of the Superior Court. The candidates, aside from myself, are all worthy of your support. I cannot include myself in such a statement, but I leave it to you to pass on that point. As regards myself, you know me, better than most of the people who are supporting me. I have been on the road for about a year, and I am now before you for election, my first appearance before you as a candidate. All the candidates on the Republican ticket are worthy of your support and I ask you on the 6th day of November to vote the straight ticket."

P. A. HAVILAND.

P. A. Haviland, candidate for County Surveyor, was next, saying: "In 1890 I entered the office of the County Surveyor under Mr. Kussbaum. I remained in the office under Mr. Prather, and am now before you, after that apprenticeship, seeking the office. I only hope you will give me the same support you gave those two gentlemen."

JOHN P. COOK.

County Clerk Cook was next introduced, saying: "Four years ago, upon receipt of word from Pleasanton on the night we waited for returns, I telephoned home that I had been elected, for the few remaining precincts to be heard from could not overcome my majority received here. At that time I promised you a clean, business-like administration, and again I pledge myself to that kind of a career in office. I said then I would work, and I feel that the people took me at my word, for I have consistently worked all the time. We have issued over 10,000 marriage licenses in the last four years."

JAMES S. BARBER.

Tax collector James S. Barber was next presented, being followed by Sheriff Barrett and E. K. Strickland, the most enthusiastic Republican rally of the campaign. He said in part: "I am anxious for me to say a word for the county candidates. I feel satisfied that you are convinced that the Republican party could not have nominated better men for the offices. And not only on the county ticket, but on the State ticket we have excellent men. There are a few points of importance on which I would like to dwell. The Democratic candidates for State offices seem to use most of their time abusing the friends of each. The appendices of the Democratic party, as they themselves agreed, William H. Hearst—was removed from the convention in this State of the party, but I hear that the appendices has broken out here. Here in California we have parties appealing to the people. In the Republican ranks we have James N. Gillett, the head of the ticket. We are told by his opponents that he is controlled by corporate influence. But I have watched him in his work in the State Legislature at Washington, and I can say that Gillett of Humboldt never waters from his duty to the people."

"The selfish, corrupt machines of this State have never been able to effect or control the election of a man who has influence today. At all times he has worked for the interests of the great State of California, and has always made good in all positions to which he has been elected."

"Gillett hails from Humboldt county, the banner Republican county of this State, and his friends there have long ago to go into the fight for Governorship of California. He made a personal canvass of this State after he returned from the last session of Congress, and during that trip he secured the support of the clearest, most popular and influential men in the State for his candidacy for the nomination before the Santa Cruz convention. He had enough support there without San Francisco, and got it as any honorable man would get it."

"The two Democratic candidates have agreed on one thing. That is, that national issues cannot figure in this State fight, for should they take up a national question, their doom would be sealed by the Republican party could be found amiss in any of its works at Washington you would hear Mr. Langdon and Mr. Bell telling the people of this State that I believe every American citizen is satisfied with the work of the national party, and I don't believe that on the day after election the people of this State will allow it to be flashed across the continent that the State has repudiated Roosevelt, but that we will let the world know that we are behind Gillett and the Republican party."

NEW CHURCH IS DEDICATED

Epworth Methodists Complete
$30,000 Edifice Free From Debt.

BERKELEY, Oct. 15.—With 1000 worshippers raising their voices in praise, the Epworth Methodist Episcopal church recently completed at a cost of $30,000, was dedicated for worship yesterday morning by Bishop James Atkins, D. D., of North Carolina.

The rendition of "Open Up to Me the Gates" by Miss Virginia Goodsell, the popular soprano was a most delightful feature of the offertory service. Miss Goodsell is favored with a full rich soprano voice and used it to great advantage in song at the praise service of the churchmen yesterday.

The dedicatory sermon by Bishop Atkins followed. Choosing as his text a selection from Acts xviii 18 which reads, "Paul a spirit stirred in him when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry," the reverend gentleman called on his churchmen to join in a service of praise, rejoicing that they were part of a congregation in a college community where idolatry did not exist. He admonished the congregation to stand firm as a unit in the building which into one of the strongest houses of worship in the college town.
